Navigating Ambiguities in Construction Contracts: Challenges, Considerations and Best Practices

Thursday, 20 July 2023, 5.00 – 7.15pm (Singapore time, GMT+8)
NTUC Centre, Room 903, Level 9, One Marina Boulevard, Singapore 018989

About this Seminar

Construction contracts are often highly complex, involving multiple parties, numerous legal requirements, and detailed specifications. Even with the best intentions, ambiguities in the drafting may sometimes arise, causing disputes, delays, and even litigation. This seminar will explore the challenges and considerations associated with identifying and managing contractual ambiguities, including the legal, technical and practical aspects:

The speakers will discuss and explore:

- legal implications of contractual ambiguities in construction contracts
- strategies for identifying and addressing ambiguities in contract language
- best practices for managing contractual ambiguities throughout the construction process

Whether you are a construction lawyer, contracts manager or project manager, do join us for a thought-provoking and informative event.
